

HELEN PADGET TROPHY

Helen Padget Trophy – Premier League Best Player Award

The Helen Padget Award is awarded to the Women's Premier League Best player as voted by their peers throughout the season. The award is named in honour of Helen Padget who has won this award five times and is arguably Doncaster's best ever female player winning the league best player in 1988. Helen has also made a significant contribution to junior and senior coaching at Doncaster over many years and was awarded Life Membership in 2015.
